MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The defendant appeared on a revocation hearing of his pretrial release on October 7, 2008. Cynthia Davidson, Assistant United States Attorney, was present representing the government and Paula Voss, Assistant Federal Defender, was present representing the defendant.

On December 10, 2007, the Defendant was released on personal recognizance bond with an Order Setting Conditions of Release [Doc.6]. The conditions of the Defendant's release required that he: not commit another federal, state, or local crime while on bond in federal court; report to the United States Probation Office as directed; refrain from possessing a firearm; refrain from the use of any narcotic drugs or controlled substances, submit to drug testing, participate in a program of inpatient or outpatient substance abuse therapy and counseling as directed by the United States Probation Office; refrain from obstructing, in any fashion, the efficiency and accuracy of any prohibited substance testing or electronic monitoring conditions; report as soon as possible, to the pretrial services office or supervising officer any contact with any law enforcement personnel, including, but not limited to, any arrest, questioning, or traffic stop; and no driving. [Doc. 6]

On September 5, 2008, a Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release was filed by Defendant's pretrial services officer. The Petition stated that Defendant was in violation of the terms of his release and moved the Court to bring the Defendant before the Court to show case as to why his bond should not be revoked.

On October 7, 2008, the Defendant appeared before the Court and admitted to the Court that he had violated the Order Setting Conditions of Release. The Court finds the Defendant has violated the Conditions of Release and the Defendant poses a danger to the safety of the community and is a risk of non-appearance. The Defendant acknowledged that he was aware that his release would be revoked and he would be held in custody pending the trial of his case. Therefore, the Order Setting Conditions of Release [Doc. 6] is hereby REVOKED and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal pending his trial on February 3, 2009, at 9:00 a.m., before the Honorable Thomas W. Phillips, United States District Judge. His appearance bond is hereby CANCELLED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
